Karen
you've been a pleasure in addition to homeroom.
Good luck in the future.
Mrs. Clark

It's been bad not having you in any of my classes this year but I hope to have you in one or more next year. Always,
for Jeff Gross

Karen,
It's been really nice
knowing your daughter.
You haven't known her you've enjoyed her mess you know. But I'll miss you I hope to see you next year you again next year. I'll miss you. I'll miss you.
Love
Robbie
McClellan
always Robbie

Love for Paul

I don't know to say this but I'll miss you and I love you in my way and I hope to see you next year.
I had to get a new pen because.
well I got to close
now I see you

Love Paul

Karen,
 I've even thought for one year you seem to get crazier. all the time I can tell your gonna be a super weird chick. Listen stay cool + sweet and as crazy as you are.
 Take it easy!
 Love,
 Shari

H.
 A lot was strange. But other wise ck
 is alright.
 Robin.

Karen,
 I've just gotten to know you but I would really like to get to know you alot better. Over the summer call me O.K?
 Love ya (Linda)
 Elaine

Karen,
 Remember how we used to fight every day at the start of the school year? That goodness we have stopped that and are friends. I'm probably just as crazy as I was then, I just know better. Give me a great summer
 see you next year in Germany.
 Love
 Shari

Karen,
 you don't know what Tricia means by keep your pants on, but don't worry I don't either!!
 Give 'em Hell!!
 And keep your own *?!+*ing pants on!
 Stay nice + be cool!

Love Always,
 Debbie L.

Karen;
 I know for sure that this is what you've been waiting
 on. O.K. Get ready.
 Here it is Jeremy
 Kagus
 sorry there
 it went
 A.S.H

Don't forget about pictures
 my me, too so happy! Remember do you know
 and pictures
 in old one
 I don't like to quit
 I hope
 Love
 Jeremy

It's been nice
knowing you.
I'd have a nice summer. Love
heigh

To one of best looking girl I know
- will always have
love Kunny

Hi Karen,
Well, another long year has come and I think next year you'll be a little older. I guess you'll be over the summer.

Love ya Paolo,
Peggy

Hi Karen,
I don't really know you that well but I know what you really are nice.

Don't do anybody
I wouldn't.
P. H.

Hi Karen,
We have knocked down another year. You are a very nice person
and you always seem to know what to say. I am glad we are friends
you are the BEST! Hope we will always be friends. Have a nice summer. Good luck
with the guys.

DEDICATION

Hidden away in a room on fourth wing, snapping his finger persistently among quarter rests, black wool uniforms, and polished brass is a quiet, unassuming man. During football season he spends his mornings trying to keep time through a bullhorn. Standing in the early morning dew he must organize 30-some-odd drill teamers and his entire marching band, to the tune of "Get It On." He teaches high school band and in doing so he must also provide spirit at assemblies and entertainment during various contest intermissions, not to mention providing the background music for the school production. His may not be the most glamorous of jobs, working with teenage musicians who want to play band instruments, but he can, through his skill and patience, pry loose the talent from his novice players. He has, through his years of teaching at Cross Keys, brought honor and recognition to the school through his instrumental music. Because of his talent, patience, and dedication, we feel he deserves a special recognition. Therefore, with appreciation and gratitude, the 1975 Chieftain Staff dedicates this yearbook to Mr. Leon Rundbaken.

LEON RUNDRBAKEN

I AM a school — a compilation of narrow hallways, lined with monotonous lockers, dingy windows framed in dust, brittle plaster dried in the sun, faded bricks bleached from age, and rough sidewalks cracked from constant use. Still, I feel I've served my people well. I've kept them warm in winter and protected them from the rain. I've housed their books and tools as well as their laughter and friendship. But in the spring of '74 I heard rumors of reconstruction, plans to rebuild me. No one asked for my opinion or for my consent, because if they had, I would have protested violently. I'd held up well for all these years. I was content as I stood, but you can't stand in the way of progress. So they cluttered my halls with bits of plaster, piles of bricks, and scraps of metal. They poked me and prodded me with hammers and picks and they drilled me until my windows shook. They scraped away my trees and grass and filled the air with the choking dust of dry cement. All summer long I baked in the hot sun while they hacked away at me. In the fall, the people returned. They complained bitterly of the heat and the sickening smell of melted tar. They growled as they stumbled over piles of bricks and cement, and I felt embarrassed in my ugliness. After a little while, the grumbles ceased and the people became accustomed to the bits and pieces of me that were left in their way. And after a while longer, the chopping, hammering and drilling stopped. When the last cloud of dust finally lifted, I looked at myself and realized that they had made me beautiful. The people's complaints had turned to smiles of pride because I looked new and refined. I was pleased after all. I AM still a school — but now my hallways are cleared of trash, my windows glisten in the sunshine, brand new units keep us cool in the sun and warm in the biting wind, my bricks are full of color, a deep natural red, and my sidewalks are smooth and clean and white. I AM proud of my new face, and so are my people. Now, WE ARE a proud new school. WE ARE Cross Keys High.

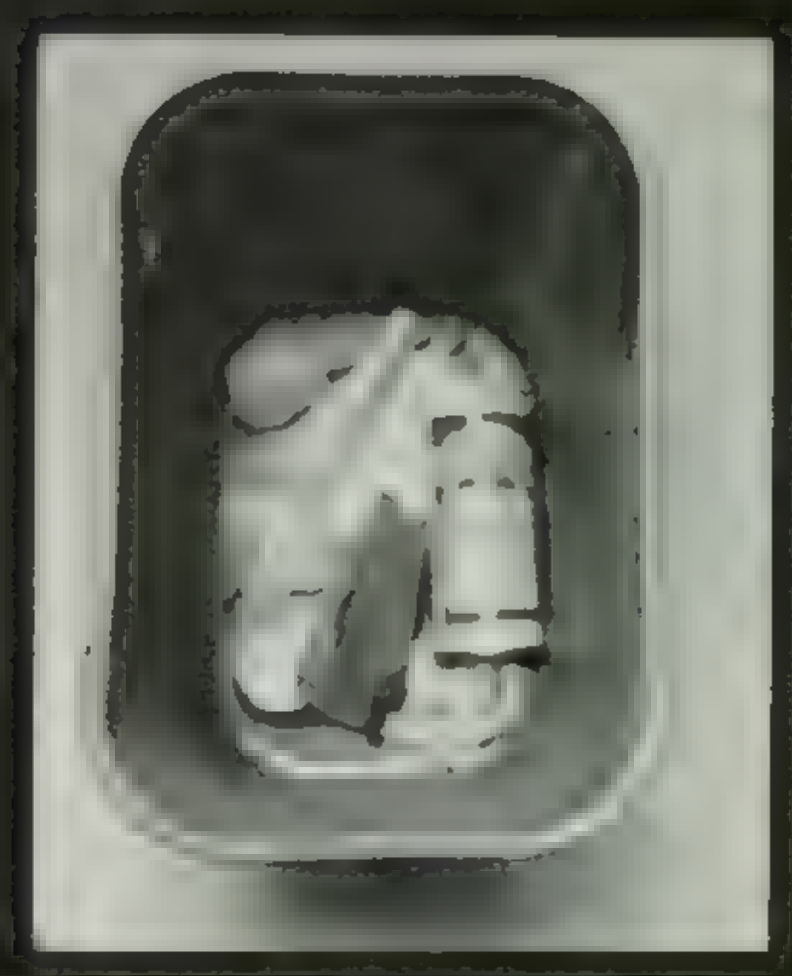

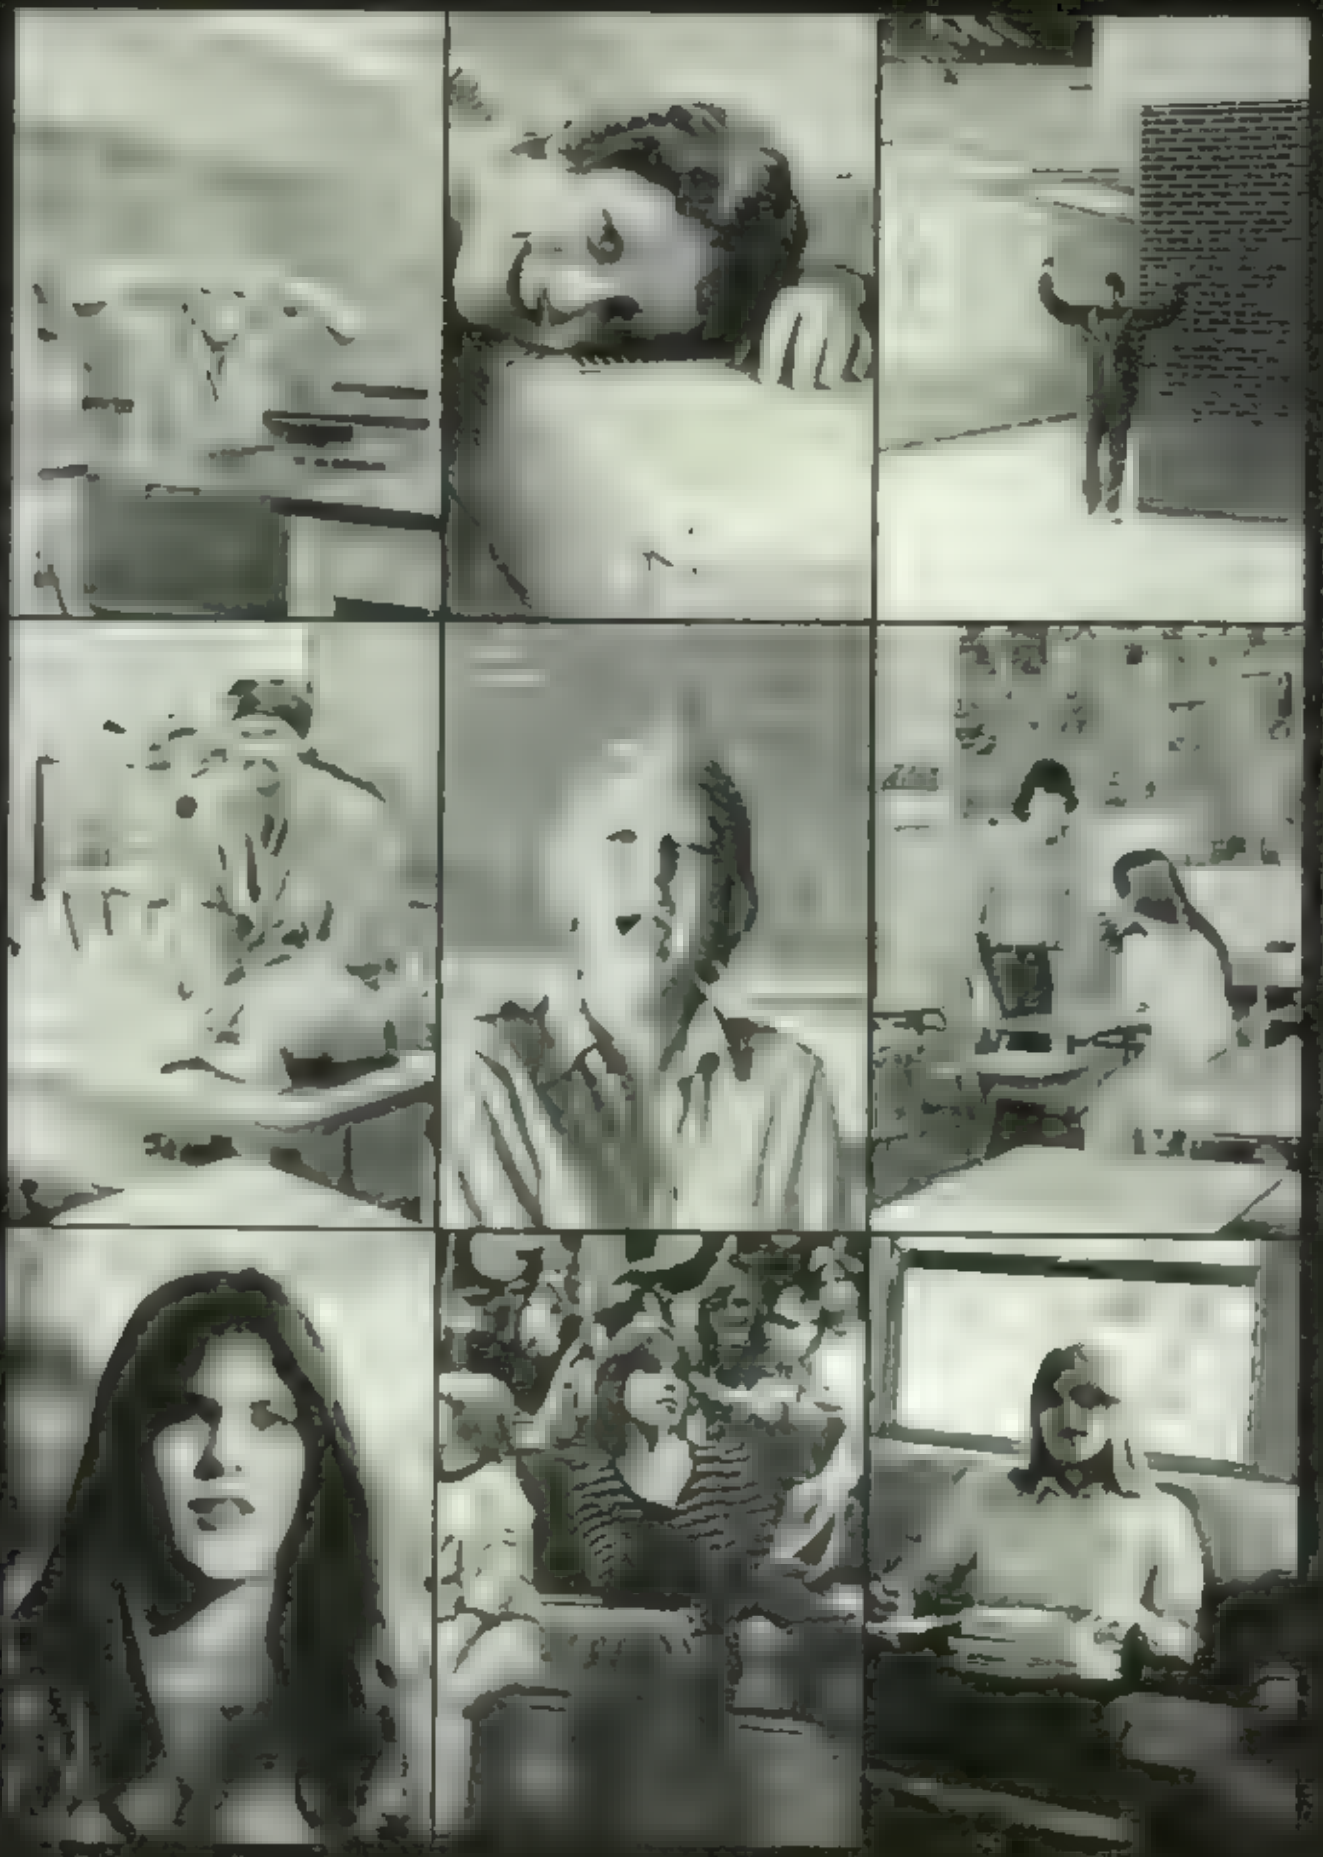

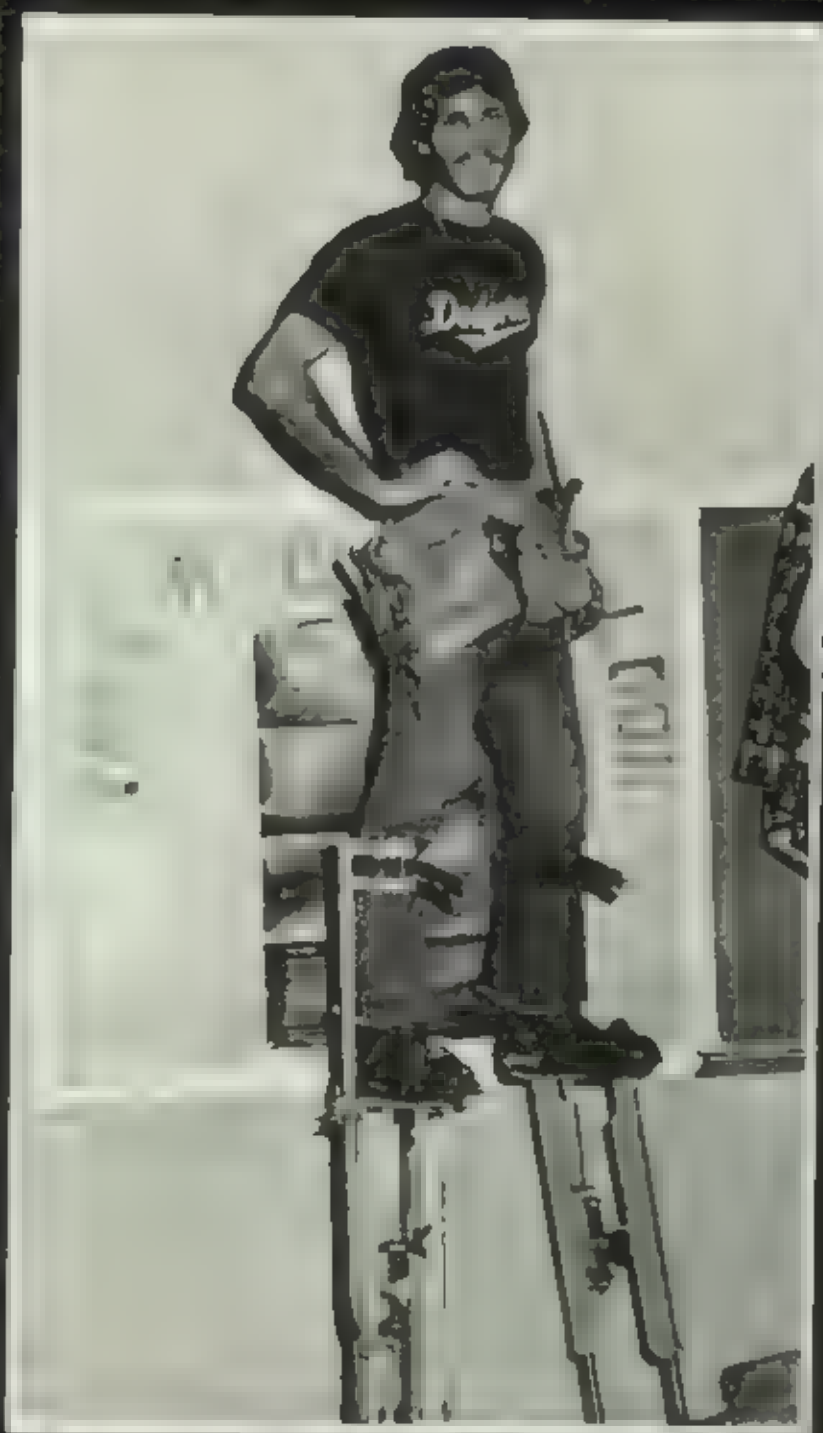

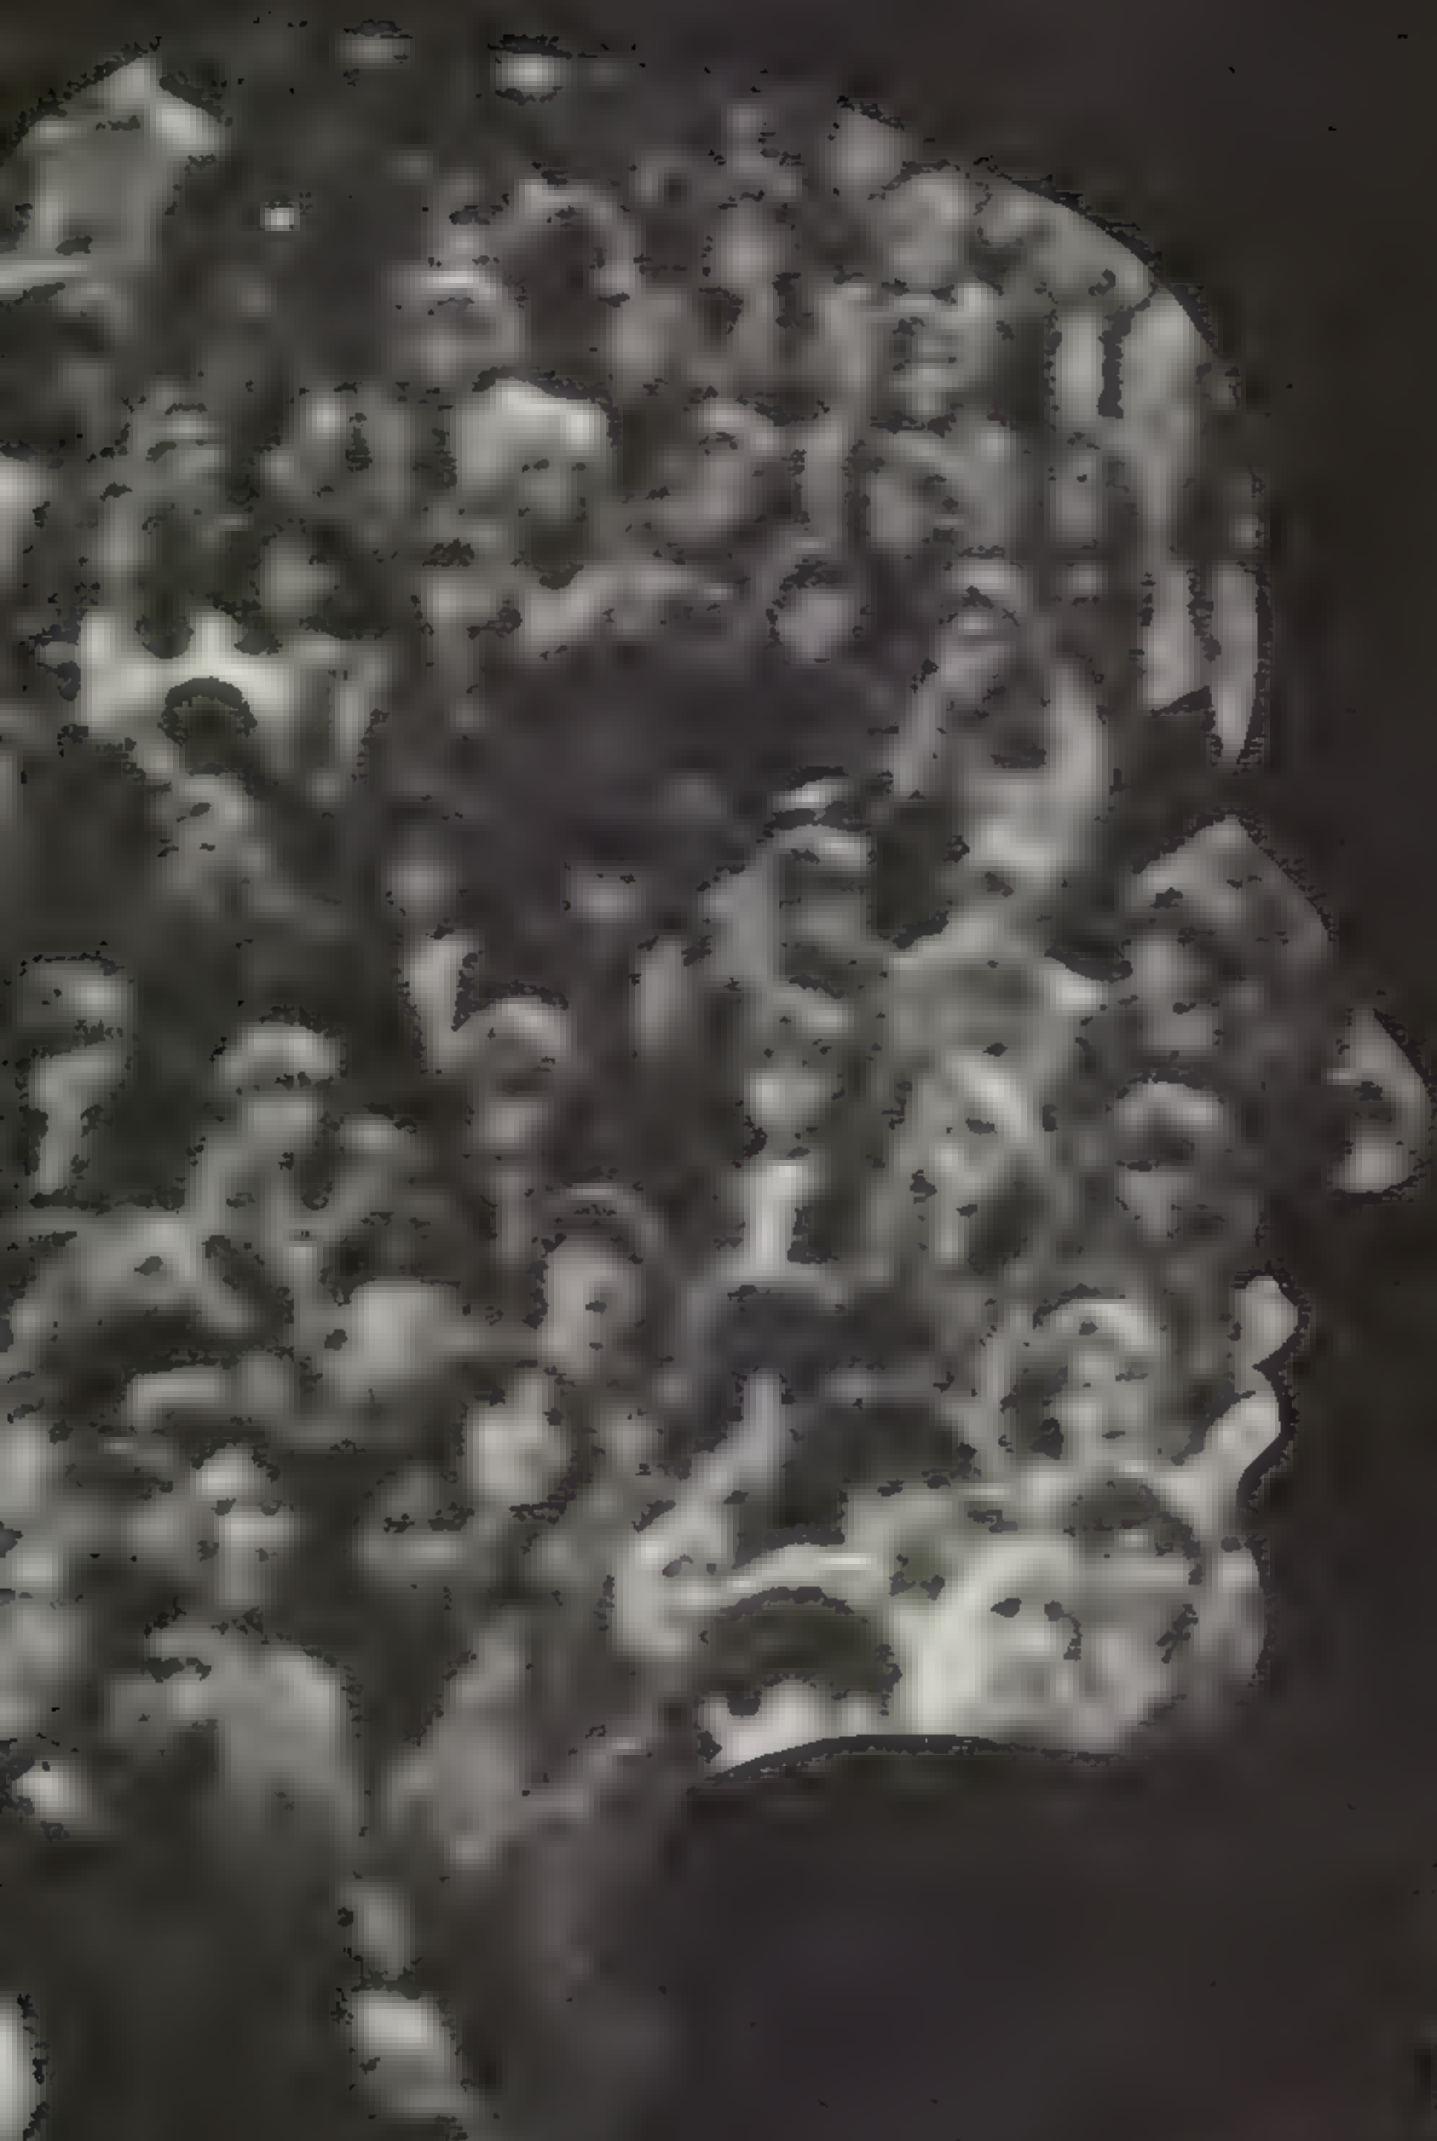

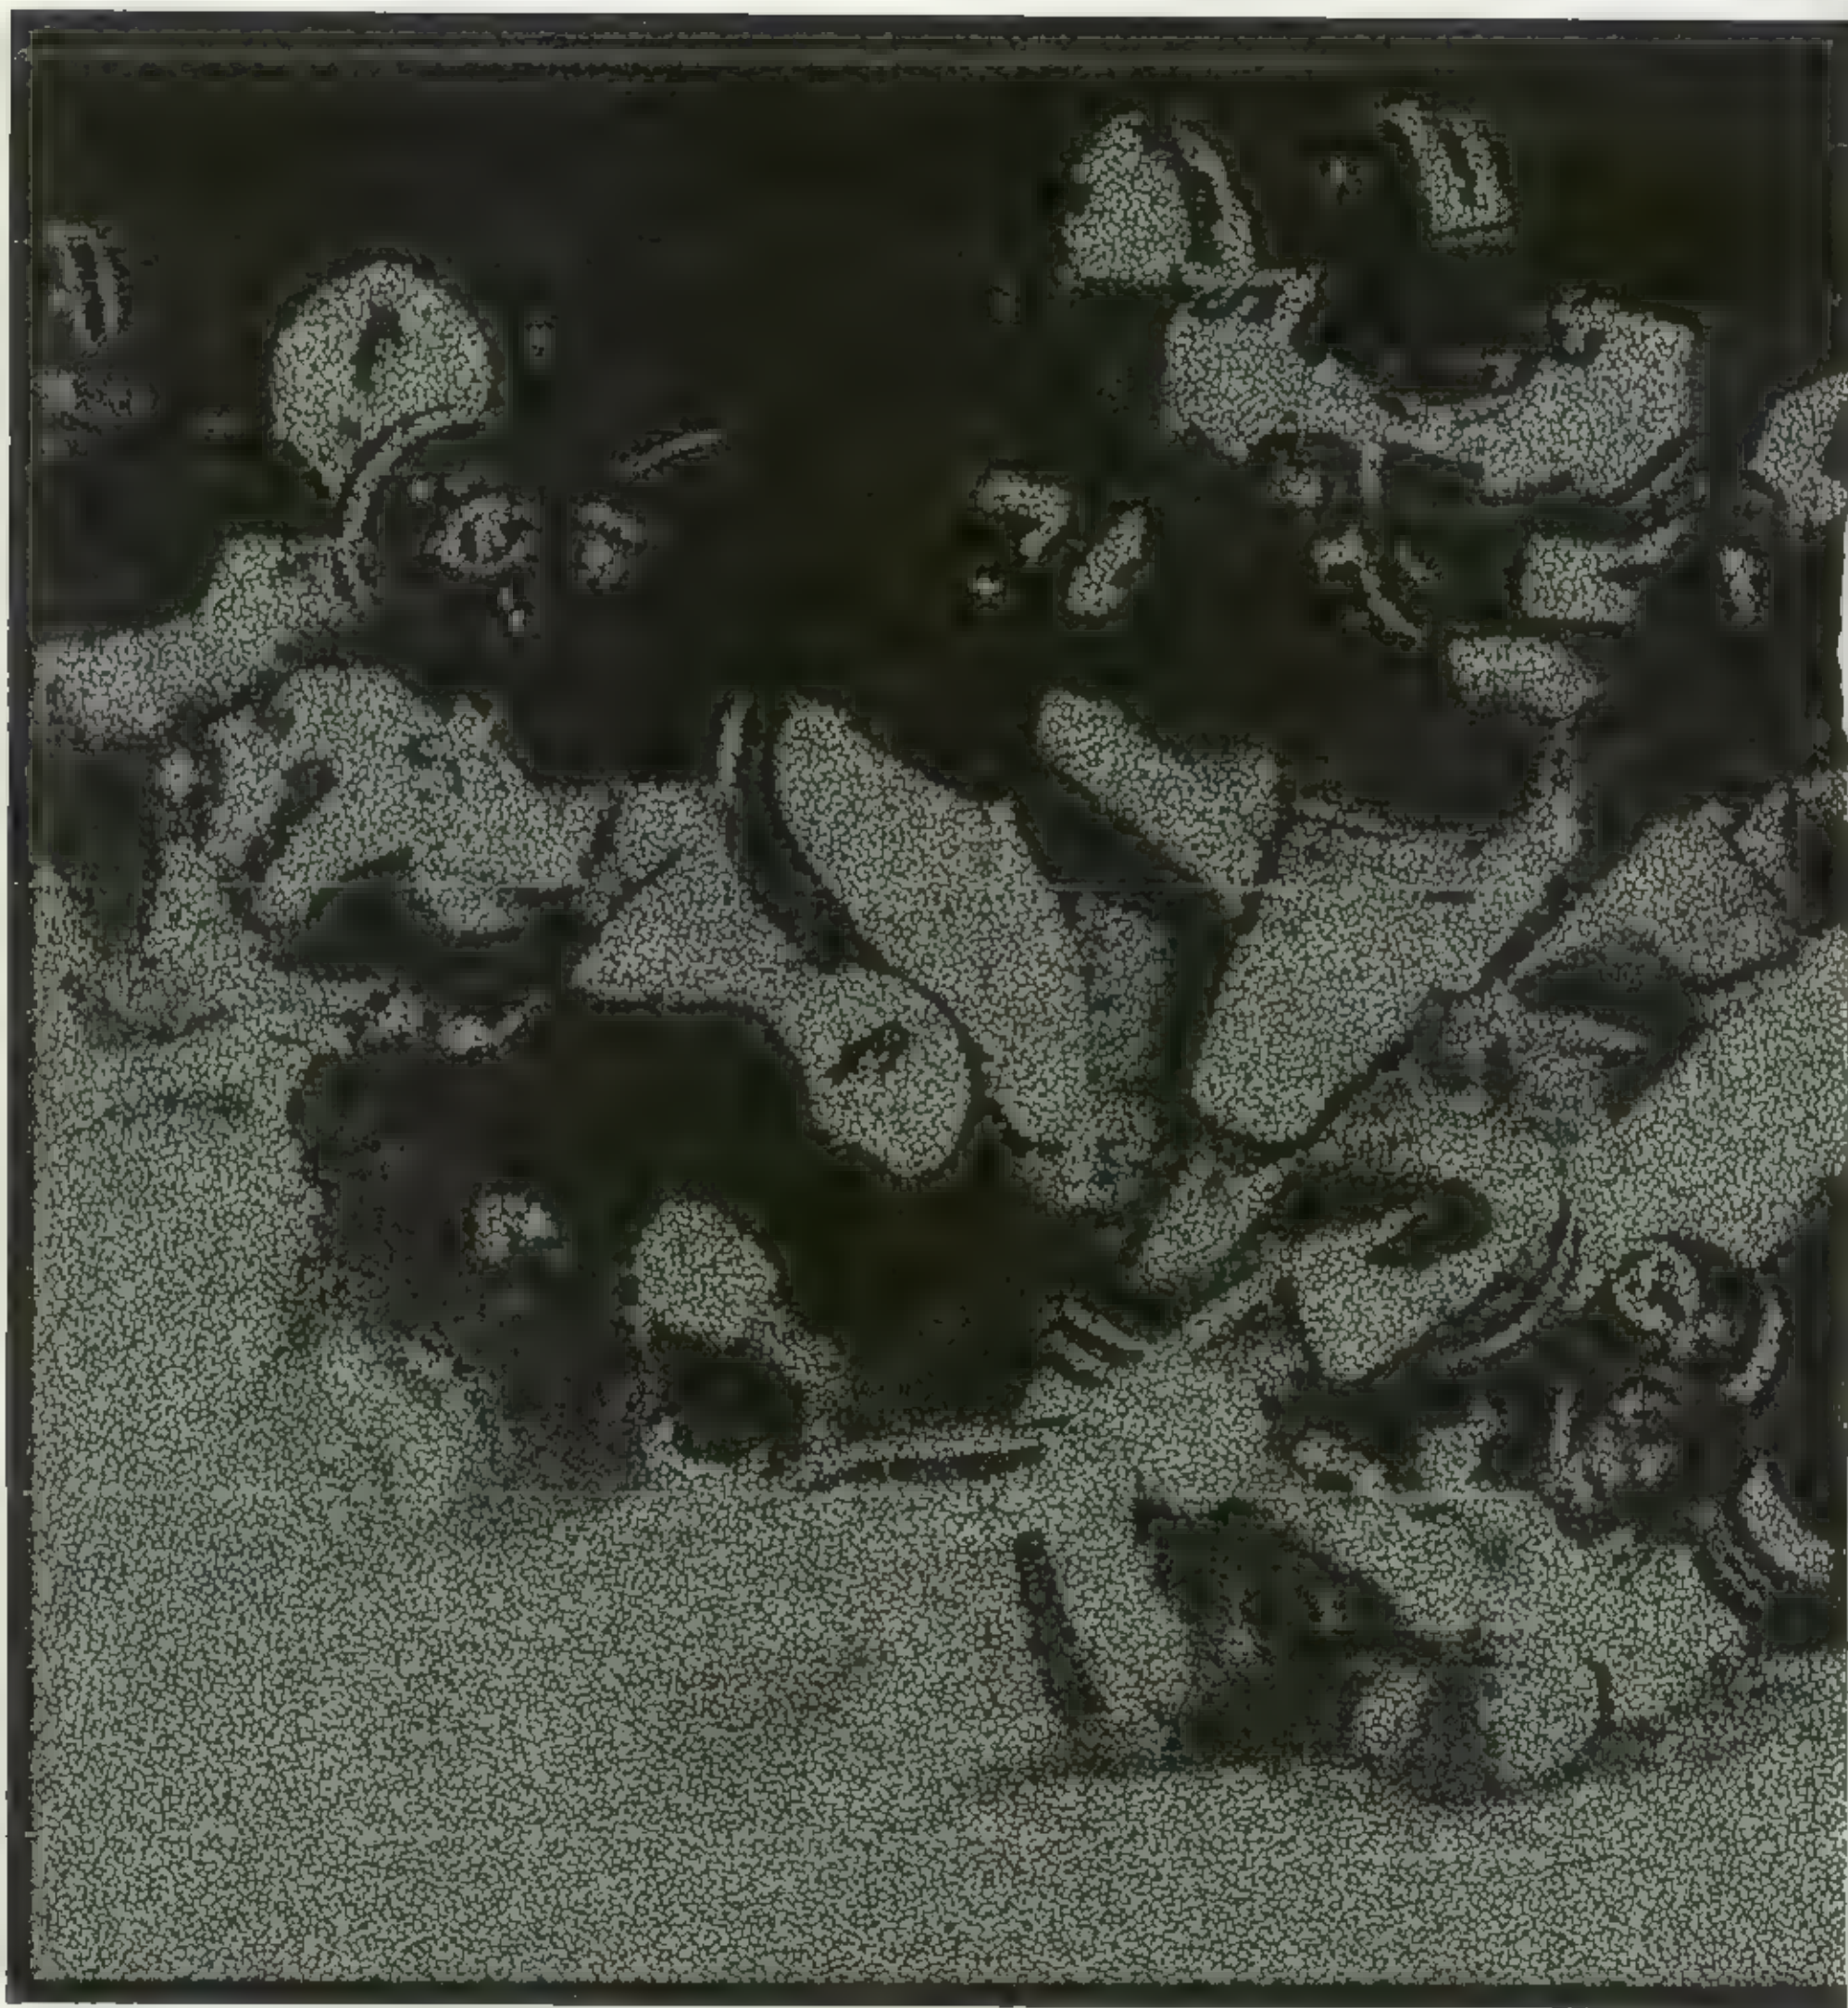

I am . . .
We are . . .

ONE . . .

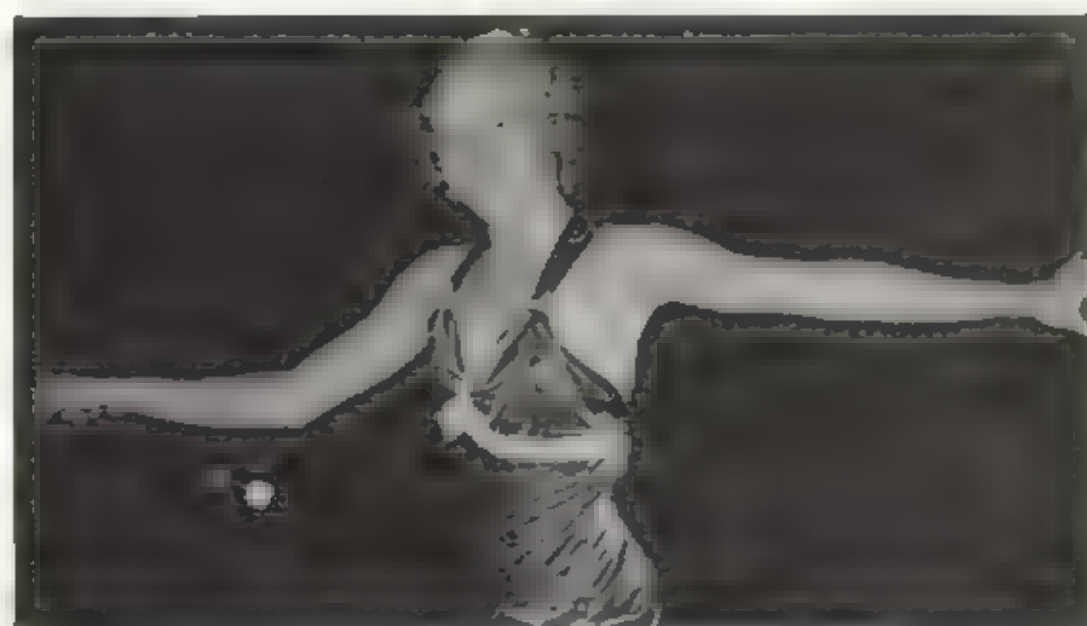

Roy Paul

The single hand clenched in determination holds the key to the spirit of competition. There is seldom time to reflect upon the emotion involved in the playing of a game. There is loneliness, pain, and disappointment; but there is also unity, joy, and pride. The victory is not in the end but in the striving

I AM A KALEIDOSCOPE

I am a portfolio of faces, a collection of rhymes that have ripened with age.
Time turns the pages and whispers through my mind, like a melody I can't place.
It slaps me in the face and says stand up and be counted.
Show what you amount to.
I'm running along the line between assemblage of time and hopes for the future, but I can't change the past that has become the history of me.

THE KALEIDOSCOPE

haven't
 to meet you
 you in a good be need a good time together
 hope we can have more good time like it. I have had I hope to see you next year
 and keep calling me and all keep calling you
 all my love

I like you not to know me may my best friend stay

April

I have a great summer.

Dear

I must hurry to tell a friend.

My dear friend, I am so glad to hear from you and that you are well. I have known you for many years and I hope to see you soon. I have been thinking about you a lot lately. I hope you are happy and healthy. I will close now.

I will write again when I have more news to tell you. I hope you are well and happy. I will close now.

I will write again when I have more news to tell you. I hope you are well and happy. I will close now.

I will write again when I have more news to tell you. I hope you are well and happy. I will close now.

Journal for June

1922

June 1st - A very warm day. Went to the city, but did not go far. The weather was very hot. The sun was very bright. The air was very warm. The ground was very dry. The trees were very green. The flowers were very red. The grass was very green. The water was very blue.
The sky was very blue. The clouds were very white. The birds were very loud.
The children were very happy. The old people were very sad. The young people were very excited. The animals were very noisy. The plants were very tall. The mountains were very high.
The valleys were very deep. The rivers were very wide. The oceans were very blue. The world was very beautiful.

It's been fun great and nice knowing you You are a one of kind type of person. You have share your good times with me. I can't think of anything I've done for you but Listen to your crazy laugh's. But Karen really it has been great having some one to talk to. Remember the time we went to the basketball game get ~~as~~ as well.
~~as well~~ treating us so nice.

because you

everything is going.

Love ya like a sister.

Jean

Karen;

Well, another year's passed and you're still crazy as *? (profanity) I sure hope you and [redacted] get together before this summer. ( [redacted] ) Hey, I just thought of something... I've been in your 'social studies' class both years. maybe again next year. Well, I'll maybe get you to go shopping one more time this summer. Stay cool.

Love always,

Tricia

Hi there!
We've haven't been in the same classes but I still know you! It's been a while since I saw you. Bye Michelle
Theresa

Karen,
Even though I don't know you that well, I still think you are a very nice person. I remember last year and I almost wish I could talk to you. I wish you the best of luck always. Hope to see you again next year.

Karen -
I can't forget any of my first students - especially those that gave me a hard time.
Have a nice summer
Thomas

Karen
me and you has had our little ups and downs but I'm not going to let that ruin the good old days.
I love you
Catherine

year
love
feel
I don't any cut
all best
hope we get your
and keep me
when really are you
now
also that see
each other
fun
I hope
you
get
all
the luck
we
get
to see
you
really
see
each
other
fun
I hope
you
get
all
the luck
we
get
to see
you
really
see
each
other
fun
